Senior Spotlights

Meet three of our 14 amazing Take Stock in Children -
Seminole graduating seniors!

With a strong passion for music, Josue plays the trumpet in his high school band and earned recognition at the state and county levels this year. After applying to the University of Central Florida, Josue was selected to receive the Provost Scholarship Award – a 4-year, $30,000 scholarship.

Last March, Adourin played Joseph in Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat at the Wayne Densch Performing Arts Center. "My role as Joseph was the best role I have ever played. Playing Joseph was a dream come true and was my first center stage lead!" His passion for acting and singing began when he was just 6 years old and saw his step-father and a friend do a skit at church. Read More.

Scholarship Doubled for

One Lucky Winner

As part of Florida's Leaders for Life program, next year seniors can apply to increase their 2-year scholarship to a 4-year scholarship. One winner from our class of 2018 will receive the extended scholarship. Watch for details in the fall.

state-wide, Seminole TSIC graduates Jalynn McClarin and Trevor Cardini were both awarded a two-year dorm scholarship from the Florida Take Stock office. This is in addition to their Florida Prepaid Plan. Jalynn is going to Florida Atlantic University to pursue an elementary education degree this fall, and Trevor is heading to the University of Central Florida to earn an engineering degree. Congratulations Jalynn and Trevor!

Mentors Needed

Does your business offer its employees opportunities to volunteer in the community? Take Stock staff will come to your office and talk with your team about the program and what it means to be a mentor. If workers can devote an hour once a week to listen, talk, coach and be a consistent presence in a student's life, contact Jennifer at cardenjd@scps.k12.fl.us and 407-320-0301 to talk about recruiting, training and matching your employees with a student.

Partner Spotlight

A BIG thank you to these companies for helping us celebrate the many accomplishments of our students with their families and mentors!
